Las Vegas Undertaking Co.

Successor to W. M. LEWIS CO.

W. C. DENNISS, Manager

Mrs. W. C. DENNIS, Assistant

PHYSICIANS

DR. E. L. HAMMOND

DENTIST

Suite 4, Crockett Building. Both

DR. G. L. JENKINS

DENTIST

Over Hedgcock's Shoe Store

Phone Vegas 79

F. R. LORD, DENTIST

(Successor to Dr. R. M. Williams)

Office Pioneer Building, over Grand

ATTORNEYS.

GEORGE H. HUNKER

Attorney at Law

Office: Veeder Block, Las Vegas, New

GEORGE E. MORRISON

Civil Engineer and Surveyor

Office: Wheeler Bldg. E. Las Vegas

Even when a woman does every thing to brighten her husband's home he is apt to kick because he has to

'Twas a Glorious Victory.

man's life has been saved, and now Dr.

guaranteed by all druggists.

don't have to find them. They find

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known

"I have used Chamberlain's Colle, stance where a cure was not speedlly

Subscribe for The Optic and save

Active at 87.

Block Depot Drug Co.

This would be unusual news if men

Telephone your news items to The People with chronic brouchitis, asth-relief and comfort in Foley's Honey

Summer is filled with pride, per

Music Teachers

TAKE NOTICE

We are continually asked to re-comend teachers in different sections terest you. State what instrument you teach. Send name and address

Los Angeles, California, in full to your eyes.

effected by its use. I have been a comto Fail.

There's rejoicing in Fedora, Tenn. A

Main 57.

Leader, Rooms 3 and 4. Phone phones at office and residence.

Undertaking and Embalming

Picture Framing a Specialty-Excellent Assortment of Moldings

THE BEST GOODS OBTAINABLE ALWAYS HANDLED

CHAPMAN LODGE NO. 2. A. F. & A. Regular comnunication first and third Thursdays in ty invited. Geo. H. Kinkel, W. M., Chas. H. Sporteder, Secretary.

each month. Visiting brothers cordial-

LAS VEGAS COMMANDERY NO. 2. Knights Templar. Regular conclave second Tuesday in each month at Masonie 2 empte, 7:30 p. m. Johr S. Clark, F. C., Charies Tamme, Recorder.

LAS VEGAS CHAPTER NO. 8, ROYal Arch Masons. Regular convocation first Monday in each month at Masonic Temple, 7:30 p. m. M. R. Williams, H. P., has. H.

Sporleder, Secretary.

EL DORADO LODGE NO. 1

Knights of Pythias meet every Monday Castle Hall, Visiting Knights are cordially invited. LP. HAVENS,

C. M. BERNHARD,

BALDY LODGE, NO. 77, FRATER-Me-ts first and third Wednesday of pay the gas and electric light bills. each month at Fraternal Brotherhood hall. Chas. Trambley, F. M .; Bertha C. Thornhill, Secretary. Vis-man's life has been saved, and now Dr. King's New Discovery is the talk of the town for curing C. V. Pepper of deadly lung hemorrhages. "I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctor did me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks, I feel like a new man, and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, coughs and colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, la grippe, asthma or any bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold and guaranteed by all druggists.

fourth Tuesday evenings each month at O. R. C. hall. Visiting brothers are cordially invited. W. M Lawis, exalted ruler: D. W. Con-

MASTERN STAR. REGULAR COMmunication second and fourth Thursday evenings of each month. All visiting brothers and sisters are cordially invited. Mrs. Sarah A. Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since Chaffin, worthy matron; Mrs. Ida it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one in Seelinger, secretary.

1. O. O. F., LAS VEGAS LODGE NO. O. O. F., LAS VEGAS LODGE NO. mercial traveler for eighteen years, 4. meets every Monday evening at and never start on a trip without this, their hall in Sixth street. All visit my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols ing brethren cordially invited to at of Oakland, Ind. Ter. For sale by all tend, C W. McAllister, N. G .; E. Comstock, V. G.; R. O. Williams, secretary; W. E. Crites, treasurer; C. V. Hedgcock, cemetery trustee.

PRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD, NO. 102, meets every Friday night at and women would keep themselves their hall in the Schmidt building free from rheumatism and all aches west of Fountain Square, at eight and pains as well as keeping their o'clock. Visiting members are cor muscles and joints limber with Baldially welcome. Jas. N. Cook, pres- lard's Snow Liniment. Sold by Center ident: Jas. R. Lowe, secretary.

ENIGHTS OF COLUMBUS, COUN-CIL No. 804, meets second and Optic, Phone Main 2. fourth Thursday, O. R. C. hall, Pioneer bldg. Visiting members are cordially invited. W. R. Tipton, ma and lung trouble, will find great G. K.: E P. Mackel, F. S.

and Tar, and can avoid suffering by commencing to take it at once. O. G. O. E. MEETS FIRST AND THIRD Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co. Tuesday evenings each month, at Fraternal Brotherhood Hall Visiting brothers are cordially invited, haps because it goeth before a fall. Jno Thornhill, president; E. C. Ward, Secretary.

REDMEN MEET IN FRATERNAL Brotherhood hall every second and fourth Thursday, sleep at the eighth run. Visiting brothers always welcome to the wigwam. David of the country. Hence we are compiling a Music Teachers Directory Flint, sachem: Waite H. Davis, for the southwest. It will be to your ehief of records and collector of advantage to have your name appear in this directory. It will cost you in this directory. It will cost you nothing In addition to this your name will be on our mailing list, which

S. E. ROSENWALD Lodge No. 545, L. O. B. B .- Meets every first Wednestay of the month in the vestry room of Temple Monteflore, Douglas avenue and Ninth street. Visittag brothers are cordially invited. FITZGERALD MUSIC COMPANY, Chas Greenelay, president; Rabbi J. 6. Raisin, secretary.

THETHIRD ROUND BY CAROLINE LOCKHART

(Copyright, by J. B. Lippincott Co.)

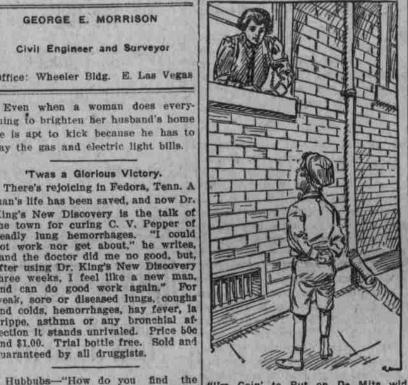

It was not quite time for Moxie Shoesbine to struggle with the other boys in the basement delivery-room of the Gazette building for his bundle of afternoon papers, so he sat on the curb and watched the girl who was taking stock quotations from the ticker in the composing-room, the window being open. He hoped she might again nod smilingly at him, in which event, possibly, he might get up courage to ask her.

'She ain't goin' to come, though," he thought, despondently.

So he got up slowly and was one of the last to get his papers, which was not Moxies' habit. As usual, it was late at night when he crept into the dirty court where he lived rather peaceably just now, his mother having been somewhat subdued by a recent term in the House of Correction his sister being "up" as an "habitual," and his brothers and sisters having come under the fostering care of "The Cruelty."

He crept out cautiously at an early morning hour that he might spend the more time sitting on the curb and watched the Girl, who in smiling at him had fed a hungry little heart without realizing her bounty.

That morning he was again impressed with the whiteness of her collar, the beauty of her eyes, and the glory of her hair, his intimate knowledge of hair and eyes and gowns being gathered from the incessant red of his mother's eyes, her matted hair, and her greasy Mother Hubbard. But he resolutely refrained from thinking of his mother when he was near this girl, lest it be sacrilegious to the Girl. He frankly hated his mother and wished she was dead.

"I'm Goin' to Put on De Mits wid mosquitoes out at Swamphurst? "We Greeny Ike."

When he looked at the Girl, Moxle realized vaguely that he, himself, was not quite worthy to gaze at her. He that he swore, lied, stole, smoked cigarettes, and got drunk readily enough when the chance offered; and he admitted to himself that these things could not be easily excused in a boy who was fully eleven years old.

This morning the Girl, looking idly out the window, saw once more sandy-haired, ugly little gamin, with the face of an old man, and she smiled frankly at him, not realizing how much it meant to him, but being just happy herself. At that Moxie came across the street and called up to her through the open window:

"Say, dey's goin' to be a good scrap down in de basemint when us fellers go fer papes dis mornin'," he said, earnestly. "I'm goin' to put on de mits wid Greeny Ike, and fight bim t'ree rounds fer de eighty-pound champeenship. We pulls off de fight at ten. before de first edition is out. Would youse like to come down and see de scrap? De udder feller's bigger'n me, but maybe I kin lick him."

"All right," the Girl called back, laughingly, "I'll come down."

The ring was roped off by tying stout packing-cord from post to post, and Moxie was already in his corner when the Girl came in, to be given a seat of honor by the young man who wrote the bulletins. promptly seized with stage-fright at the sight of her so near him. Greeny tke in the other corner looked as big as a house, but Moxie walked bravely over to shake bands with him at the order of the referee. He backed into his corner again, not daring to turn around for fear he might catch her "Time!" yelled the referee. Moxie desperately shot out his thin arm and landed a smart blow on Greeny's eye. There was no particular science about it, Greeny valiantly accepting the blow so as not to delay getting in a smash himself. The crowd yelled impartially as the blows fell. "Punch him, Greeny!" yelled a par-

"Swing your right, Moxie!" advised will enable us to send you from time to time, musical matter that will in-"Jolt him in the jaw!" suggested another engerly. Moxie ducked and danced, feinted and led, but his opponent did all these harder. When time was called at the end of the three minutes, Moxie nurses.

elt he had made a very bad showing ndeed before her eyes, and his spirits ell. The second round was worse Moxie being punished unmercifully. 'Ab, ye'r' no good, Moxie," said the crowd frankly. "Put him out, Greeny!" All thumbs were down. Panting and grasping, Moxie sought his corner, to find that his seconds had deserted him, their loyalty being borne down by the weight of adverse public opin-

"Third round! Time!" yelled the Moxie walked slowly from his corner, and Greeny promptly knocked him down. The crowd yelled in derision. Slowly he got to his feet. For the first time he gianced towards the Girl. She was standing by her chair, now, and her eyes were blazing with excitement. As she caught Moxie's despairing glance she called to him.

"Don't let him beat you, Moxie!" she cried in a shrill voice, very feminine amid the shouts of the

What happened to Moxie can only be guessed at but all know just what happened to Greeny. Moxie became a tiger whelp in an instant. He sprang at Greeny and smothered him with blows that came too hard and with too great a recklessness to be either parried or returned. Moxie's face was white to the lips, and his eyes had the glint of steel. Greeny fought back in desperate astonish ment, but Moxle never felt any blows when they did land. Yell after yell went up from the frenzied crowd around the ropes. A sodden panic came over Greeny. Bewildered, helpless to stop this sudden, mad rage of the witness stand." an opponent he had counted beaten. blinded by the ceaseless blows, he threw his arms over his face, turned, and ran to his corner, the referee following hastily to pull Moxie off from him. The referee led Moxie to the middle of the ring.

"De eighty-pound champeen, gents," said the referee, waving his hand at Everybody howled and cheered, but glad little "Hurrah!" from the place where the Girl had sat. Moxie pushed his way in that direction through the boys that swarmed around him, pullsoft white hand.

"First edition, boys!" called the de- are ladies present? livery clerk, but Moxie went by himself to the seclusion of a packing-box, that he might realize fully how happy

STILLING WATERS WITH OIL

Not Poured from Barrel Into Ocean as Supposed, But Placed in Bags at Ship's Sides.

does not empty a barrel of kerosene over the side. He stitches up three or four cotton bags, which he fills with oakum and then with oil, usually equal parts of fish oil and kerosene. needle to permit the oil to exude, and are hung from the boat davits and weather chains to drop their mollifying contents on the raging billows. The bags must not be allowed to get empty, but must be refilled every two bread won't hurt him—but so much tours. For six bags ten gallons of oil molasses—" are used in thirty hours. Sometimes, if it is very cold, the oil congeals and enough, and the mouth of the bag is News. then icosesed to let it escape in that way. Its effect is magical on a rough sea. A huge comber will rise threateningly to bury the laboring vessel

A clergyman who was not averse to an occasional glass hired an Irishman liver troubles and build up your health. dining table and subside in an instant into a smooth, round swell, which the ship rides like a cork.

The use of oil is also a valuable aid in wearing ship in a gale and high sea. A few gallons of paint oil over the lee quarter enables the vessel to perform the maneuver in perso much water that it is impossible to they were dying."-Tit-Bits. get the oil bags slung into position without running the risk of being swept overboard, an ordinary bed sheet saturated with paint oil, tied to a rope and allowed to float, will soon calm the seas sufficiently to permit men to move about the decks safely. Paint oil is agreed to be the best to use, rape-seed oil and porpoise rank next, but kerosene is not satisfactory.

The Secret of Old Age.

ity was practiced by Mrs. Yetta Schulman, who died recently in New York at the advanced age of 105 years. Mrs. Schulman paid no particular attention to points of diet, exercise, sleep, etc., which usually figure largely in rules laid down for those growing old. She believed that the lives of aged persons could be prolonged if they associated constantly, or nearly so, with young people; and she apparently verified her theory, for she spent the greater part of her time in company with children, even taking part in their sports with live- pitcher was substituted. ly interest.-Leslie's Weekly.

Woman in Important Position. Miss Edna L. Foley has just resigned her place in the Boston consumptive hospital to become the head of the Chicago tuberculosis institute. She is a graduate of Smith college, class of 1901. The Chicago institute has seven dispensaries in different parts of the city and employs nine trained nurses to assist in treating the patients. Miss Foley will have the entire charge of the dispensaries and

ABSORBLETS

He stands forth in the public eye And yet some close observers think As she goes proudly stepping by, The public gives a knowing wink. -Washington Star.

"Self-importance ain't confined to human folks" said Uncle Eben. "Dar never yet was a aig big enough to entirely justify de cahckle it stahts in de bunryard."-Washington Star.

"For my part, I don't see any more harm in a game of cards than in a game of chess."

"But consider the associations." "Why, at chess you play with two bishops, while at cards you play with four knaves."-Tit-Bits.

"He is nearly crazy because his son wants to marry an actress." "Is be so prejudiced against actresses?"

"Quite the contrary."

"Then what is his kick?" "He wants to marry her himself."

Houston Post. "That man," said the court onlooker, "will be convicted surely. He's making a very poor impression "That isn't the defendant," said a lawyer. "He's just one of the allenists undergoing cross-examination."-Detroit Free Press.

"John, what's this?"

"You told me to bring you some Moxie heard, loudest of all to him, a trical depilatories I have read about?" "Not on your life; that's a safety razor.'-Houston Post.

was standing there yet, holding out a fice boy? I suppose you behave like For instance, I can't pay my rent bea little gentleman, especially if there cause I spent all my money on a Willie-You bet! If they're homely ones, the boss takes 'e and I show 'em out; and if they're good-looking, I show 'em in and the boss takes 'em out .-- Judge.

"When you have made a statement own up to it" said the idealist.

"No." answered Senator Sorghum; When the captain of a wave-beat "it is bad enough to say something en ship pours oil upon the waters he you recreet, without following it with an expression of self-distrust you are sure to regret still more."-Washington Star.

is good for baby?"

Newpop: "Sure it is. Bread is the staff of life, you know.' Mrs. Newpop: "Oh, I suppose the spanking.

Newpop: "But he doesn't eat the molasses, my dear; he leaves that on It's the same with a lazy liver. It will not run out through the holes fast the chairs and door knobs."-Chicago causes constipation, headache, jaununder tons of water, but will strike a to clean out his cellar. The Irishman patch of oil no larger than a common began his work. He brought forth a lot of empty whiskey bottles, and as he lifted each one he looked through it at the sun. The preacher, who was walking on the lawn, saw him and said:

"They are all dead ones, Pat," "They are!" said Pat. "Well, there feet safety without taking a drop of is one good thing about it—they all cause exhaustion, backache, rheumatwater on board. When a boat ships had the minister with them when ism and urinary irregularities, which . . .

> She planned the man whom she would wed

Should be both brave and good, Full six feet tall, with curly bair, Adept at sawing wood, Combining a woman's tenderness With man's stern hardthood.

Her husband measured five feet two, His hair was red and straight, A novel method of attaining longer- He only made ten plunks per week Cared but for what he ate. And yet she truly thought he made,

A husband simply great. -New York Sun.

Harry McCormick, the Giant's star hitter, replied with an anecdote to a compliment on his batting.

"I could always bat," he said. "One Fourth, in my boyhood, a pitcher was taken out of the box after I had knocked a home run, and another

"As I was taking a drink after my cound of the bases, I heard a pretty girl in the grandstand say:

"Oh, how stupid of them to change their pitcher! The other man was awfully good. He hit the bat nearly every time.".-Washington Star.

For indigestion and all stomach rouble take Foley's Orino Laxative as it stimulates the stomach and liver and regulates the bowels and will positive ely cure habitual constipation. O G Schnefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

WANTS HER

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Veg-etable Compound had done for other suffering women felt sure it woul help me, and I must say it did help me say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman.

"I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St., North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and genu-

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herba.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkbam, at Lynn, Mass. "You told me to bring you something to remove superflous hair from your face, didn't you?"

"Oh, yes; is this one of those electrical devilences."

"The superflow of the superf Blobbs-"I suppose there is quite cofference between a rent at a Boss' Wife-So this is the new of tear." Slobbs-"You bet there is Cholera Infantum Cured.

"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely," writes J. F. Dempsey of for which you are sorry you should Dempsey, Ala. "I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but falled to find one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store, and Mr. Elder recom-mended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen The bags are then tied tightly at the tops and pricked all over with a sail think so much of bread and molasses. For sale by all dealers.

> it is possible to cure a child by he laying on of hands-with a good

> > The Crime of Idleness.

Idleness means trouble for any one. dice, sallow complexion, pimples and Call up Main 2 when you have any news. The Optic wants it.

If you are all run down Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. It strengthens the kidneys so they will eliminate the impurities from the blood that depress the nerves, and sap the vitality. Do not delay. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

